GLENWOOD CAVERNS ADVENTURE PARK HONORED AT COLORADO MEETINGS + EVENTS MAGAZINE'S ANNUAL BEST OF COLORADO AWARDS

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (Mar. 17, 2011) — Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park was named Editor's Pick for "Best Emerging Attraction" by Colorado Meeting + Events magazine at its annual Best of Colorado awards ceremony in Denver this week.

According to editor Beth Buehler, "When starting with something as cool as the caverns that can be explored at this Glenwood Springs attraction, it forms a great base for something more. The adventure park keeps adding new features such as the zip ride and bungee jump that will greet 2011 guests. The alpine coaster and canyon swing bring out the kid in anyone, and there's laser tag, saloon photos, rock climbing, a 4D ride theater and more to entertain. This is an ideal place for a casual group experience such as a day of fun complemented with a picnic. There might even be time for a meeting and a stop at the famous hot springs and quaint downtown."

Group picnics at Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park have been a big success for company events, family reunions, and church and school groups, with many groups coming back year after year. The park offers a tram ride, unlimited access to most attractions and a buffet dinner for just $30 per person. The events last from 5 to 9 p.m. and require a minimum group size of 25 people. Group discounts on the tram, cave tours, and attractions are also available for parties of 20 or more.

"We have really focused on developing our group events business the past few years," explained Steve Beckley, who owns Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park with his wife Jeanne. "The group picnic package that we are now offering has worked out well for us and for our customers. It's an honor to be recognized for our efforts."
